There's a reason for all that rhymes,
it's the fact and the way of the times It's moving emotion, its high and it's low, no matter where you go There is something for all who look, there's a story in every book
All of the pages, between all the lines, so much that you can find

Kansas

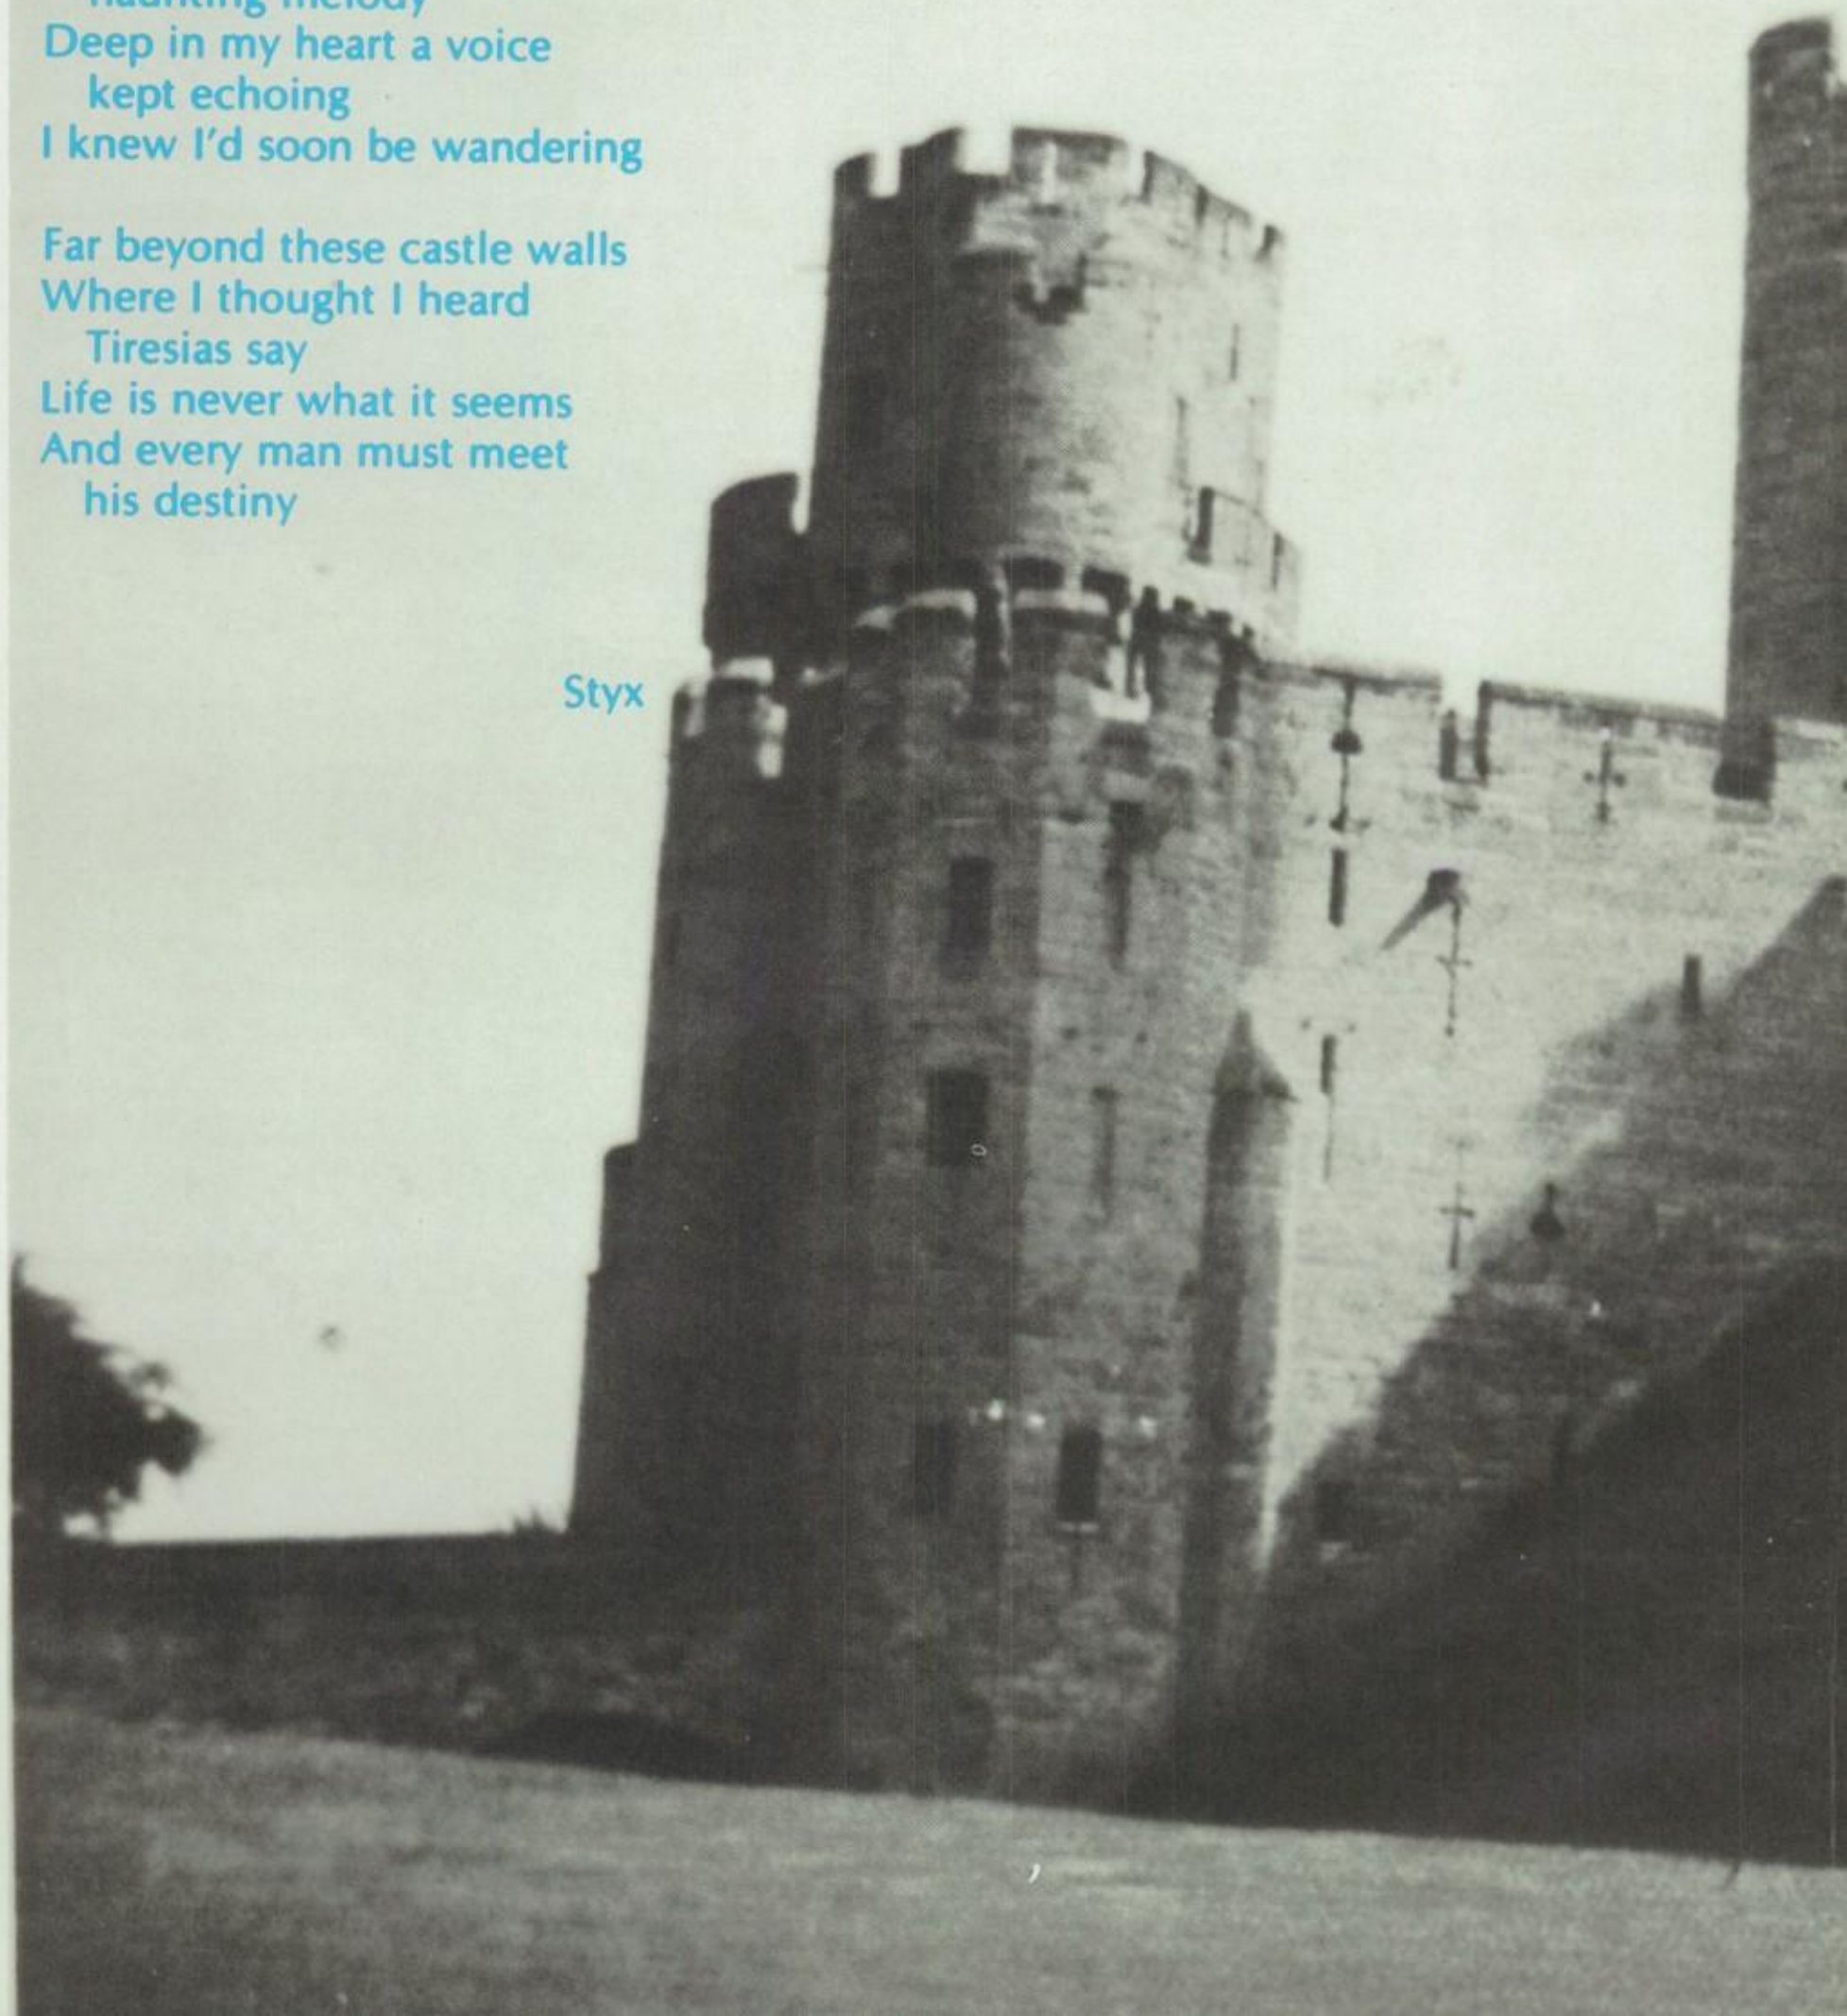

Once in a dream
Far beyond these castle walls
Down by the bay where the Moonlit water falls
I stood alone while the minstrel sang his song
So afraid I'd lost my soul

There in the fog his song kept calling me Leading me on with its haunting melody
Deep in my heart a voice kept echoing
I knew I'd soon be wandering

Far beyond these castle walls
Where I thought I heard Tiresias say
Life is never what it seems
And every man must meet his destiny

If you think that life has passed you by, or, even worse, that you are living someone else's life, you can still prove the experts wrong.

Dr. George Sheehan

I say, how can you say,
Where I'll be from day to day
When I don't even know myself?
But the life that I lead
Is so full of mysteries.
That's why I'm always on my way,
And I'll be running like the wind.

Marshall Tucker Band

There was "A bright golden haze on the meadow" when FHS presented Oklahoma! a trend setting R and H musical. Lead roles were performed by Dave Browning, Nancy Thomas, Dave Shoffstall, Mindy Eshelman, Steve Dick, JoAnn Wagner, and Lisa Richardson.

Homecoming Day

It was a brisk cold autumn day on October 13 when the Homecoming activities were held. The Festivities began early in the afternoon when the band, court, cheerleaders, and students participated in a parade through town. The final score of 14-8 in favor on the Titusville Rockets was on the board by half-time when the black knight band marched onto the field in their new uniforms.

For the first time in FHS history, the homecoming court consisted of 5 seniors with the exchange student, Anneli Albrecht, as an honorary member. Lana Lytle was crowned Queen by Vicki Wagner. Other members of the court were Michele Anderson, Tammi Blauser, Amy Cummins, Mary Reib, and JoAnn Wagner. A dance that night ended a memorable day.

Well I walk the road of life among the strong, among the weak
And I ask them for the shortcut to the answers that I seek But it seems nobody understands what is and what will be Oh, the questions of my childhood weave a web of mystery

Kansas

I traced my footsteps through the sands
of yesterday,
Back the way I came I was returning.
And when I saw me standing just across the river,
Just across the bridge that I left burning.

It was all reaching out to me;
Now my reflection in the water's all I see.
Back to the laughing green of summer days,
Back to the chilly golden autumn haze
To a place called yesterday.

Charlie Daniels Band

Listen if you can to the person you are and can be. Then do what you do best and feel best at. Something you would do for nothing. Something that gives you security and self acceptance and a feeling of completion; even moments when you are fused with your universe and your Creator. When you find it, build your life around it.

Dr. George Sheehan

I am who I am and can be nothing but that. "Do not mistake me for someone else," said Nietzsche. Do not mistake me for a listener or citizen or friend. And when I get that look in my eye that says I'm going "away", do me a favor. Let me go.

A Memorial To ...

Vincent Settlemyre
November 13, 1962 —
December 22, 1979

As a class advisor, it is always good to see students start as freshmen and mature into seniors. Each class has a certain personality. The personality of the class of "1980" was one of independence. When a job had to be done, they did it. I thank you; especially the class officers and class council. My advice to you is to compare life to a big game made up of ever changing smaller games — play it and them well.

Beginning

1980

The seniors chose this design created by Mindy Eshelman for the class flag. The colors of the flag are dark green, light green, and cream. The theme "The Beginning" was chosen because the year nineteen-eighty is the beginning of a new decade and the beginning of a new way of life for the graduates.

TEACH YOUR CHILDREN

You, who are on the road, must have a code, that you can live by, and so, become yourself, because the past, is just a goodbye.

Teach, your children well, their father's hell, did slowly go by. And feed, them on your dreams, the one they picked, the one you'll know by. Don't you ever ask them why, if they told you, you would cry, so just look at them and sigh and know they love you.

And you (can you hear) of tender Years (Do you care) Can't know the fears (can you see) that your Elders grew by (must be free) And so please help (teach your children) them with your beliefs (you believe) they seek the Truth (make a world) before they can die, (we can live in)

Teach, your Parents, well, their children's Hell, Will slowly go by. And feed, them on your dreams, the one they picked, the one you'll know by. Don't you ever ask them why, if they told you, you would cry, so just look at them and sigh, and know they love you.

Move On

They say a restless body
can hide a peaceful soul,
a voyager and a settler,
they both have a distant goal.
If I explore the heavens,
or if I search inside,
it really doesn't matter as long as I can tell myself
I've always tried.

"The Future"

The future is a reality, we all must learn to face.
A reality shared by the whole human race.
Tomorrow's a problem we cannot change,
But it is within our range.
There is a point that the future
starts,
With intelligent minds and caring hearts.
The future depends on our dreams growing tall, the outcome of tomorrow rests on us all.

As editors of this yearbook, we are thankful that this is the last page. We are also thankful for the help we received in putting this book together. A big "Thank You" to Mr. Eichholtz, for without him this book would not exist. We would like to thank Jeanne Ivell for her help on the financial end, Tom Chaffee for his guidance, and Jack Mays and Larry Harton for the many sports photos found in this book. A special thanks to Mr. Prusaczyk, Miss Jarzab, Mrs. Shilling, Mrs. Baker, Mr. Gilhousen, and two dudes. No, two nuns. No...

This year's production staff was a "lively" crew, to say the least. Working on the yearbook is not always fun; it's usually very frustrating, especially for the editors. We appreciate the staff's cooperation in trying to piece together a representation of this year at FHS, and the humor they provided throughout.

ALL YOU WANT IS HEAVEN

What's the point of standing ten feet tall if you never learn to fall
 If you want to win you've got to play the game but if you lose you must accept the pain so don't reach for the sky if All you want is heaven.

Joan Oates
